SHLOMI MOR

— WIGS · ATELIER · NEW YORK —

A house of two registers — restoration & refinement, under one atelier.

CONTENTS

FOUNDATIONS

A nineteen-page guide to the visual & verbal identity of Shlomi Mor Wigs — grouped into four chapters, paced like a slow editorial.

MISSION. VISION. Values.

01 MISSION

To return confidence.

Every woman who comes to Shlomi Mor leaves with the feeling of having her dream hair back — whether for a season, a stage, or a lifetime.

02 VISION

The world's softest luxury.

To become the New York reference for fine human-hair wigs — a house where medical solutions and high fashion sit on the same shelf, with equal care.

03 VALUES

Quiet, exact, kind.

We choose presence over performance; precision over decoration; empathy over selling. The result is a brand that feels luxurious because it is human.

THE MAIN colors.

Six brand-approved colors. Used sparingly and never together at full strength — black and ivory carry the book; the rest are accents.

THREE VOICES, one page.

The brand speaks in three typefaces. They are never used randomly — each carries a tone: display, functional, signature.

A DISPLAY SERIF

Mor

DIDOT — HEADLINES & MASTHEADS

Reserved for covers, section openers and the brand mark. Never use below 28 px. Tracking: -1% · weight 400 / 700.

B FUNCTIONAL SANS

Aa

FUTURA LT — BODY, UI, LABELS

Everything that has to work. Set body at 15 px / 1.7, labels in +0.32 em tracked caps at 11 px.

C SCRIPT ACCENT

crown

SNELL ROUNDHAND — SIGNATURE ONLY

One word per layout, maximum. The signature note — tag lines, dedications, hand-written accents on packaging. Never set as a sentence, never below 36 px.

PAIRING RULE

Big serif on top · SMALL CAPS SANS underneath · one script word as a quiet accent.
